

Short Story Competition for High School Students

The American University in Dubai, in collaboration with the Ministry of Education and the Cultural and Scientific Association, is organizing a short story contest for 12th graders in the state and private schools.

This contest is open to both local and resident students.

The competition aims to support the young generation, to discover young talents, and to support their careers as future writers.

Competition Details:

- Short story theme: fiction story – live in the UAE after 50 years
- The number of words should be at least 600 words, and not more than 1200 words.
- It can be written in Arabic or English
- It should not have been previously published
- The deadline for receiving entries is February 1 / 2021
- The results will be March 15 /2021

The first- prize winner will receive a scholarship at American University in Dubai, and the top Three winners will receive other valuable prizes.

The participant writes his name, the name of his school, his telephone number, and his email.

Send posts to: nmakansi@aud.edu

For information and inquiries - Nadir Makansi. nmakansi@aud.edu